PHILOSOPHY OF PURPOSE

It is my firm belief that each learner is an individual person, with individual strengths and weakness; and if given sufficient time and adequate instruction anyone can perform any tasks. Education entails a process as well as an achievement. Toward this end, I believe that the educational institution addresses itself to the general education and development of the total person that is, the development of the learner's physical and mental capacities.

EVIDENCE OF EFFECTIVENESS

- Founder and CEO for a non-profit organization: Love Images Ministries which has served over 900-1,000 low income and minority women since, 2005.
- Conducted Leadership Training and Workshops in conjunction with non-profit and faith based organizations within the Phoenix Metropolitan area and nationally which targeted at-risk women and families. These presentations were able to assist 25 organizations as their service population.
- Mentored and assisted 30 low income and minority women in life skills, professional development, and crisis resolved spiritual awareness and self-esteem through workshops, conferences and one-on-one interaction of the group. Twelve women received scholarships which assisted them obtaining secondary education from 2009 through 2013.
- Wrote and published a scholarly dissertation on the "EXPERIENCES OF RE-ENTRY AND NON-TRADITIONAL AFRICAN AMERICAN WOMEN AND THEIR SUPPORT NETWORKS: A JOURNEY IN PURSUIT OF A DEGREE" and obtained a PhD at Capella University, Minneapolis, MN.
